THE FLOWER PEOPLE

Listen to what the flower people say. The flower people could either be some dirty hippies or a society of anthropomorphic floral creatures. I'm sure we'll get a lot of both in this zine tonight. We're at Le Voyeur again, for the first time since zine fest. Last week was around fifty pages long, maybe the longest zine in Night Drawer history. Tonight we're back at the normal level with a lot of familiar faces.

You might say to youreslf, didn't the night Drawer already do this one? Well you're kinda right... You're probably thinking of "Flower Child" from November 13th 2022. Well it's been a long enough time for a further exploration of that concept. After all, that was issue 20 and this is issue 64!

Flower people would have to be either annual or perennial. The annual people die after a year, but hopefully have produced enough seeds that their children (flower children?) will continue to live and thrive in the same place. The flower people who are perrenial look like they are dead all winter but when spring and summer come around the seem to come back to life and look so beautiful. It's a lot like living in Olympia.

Here at le Voyeur they were playing the VHS tape of Disney's Fantasia on the TV screens as we chose the prompt (in the usual way). On screen the anthropomorphic flowers danced as we randomly selected the very prompt that we are all currently drawing. Every issue of the Night Drawer is drawn the night of the choosing of the prompt, you never know what it will be before. You can be a Night Drawer too, just come to le Voyeur at 7pm on a Sunday. But for now turn the page and learn all about the ways of the flower people!
